

Assistant Teacher- Infant Room

Job Description and Responsibilities:

This position is created to assist the lead teacher of the infant room in engaging with, teaching and supervising infants. Responsibilities include assisting the lead teacher with executing curriculum, addressing and assisting each infant with their everyday as well as special needs. Communicating with parents and caregivers on a regular basis. Creating a safe, nurturing and calm environment. Generate positive relationships with families, co-workers, licensing officials, and community partners.

Qualifications:

Must have a deep love for children and a desire to make a difference in children's lives every day.

Must have superhuman patience

Must be willing to work, teach, and educate according to YAMA standards as well as NAEYC and Great Start standards.

Must encompass the YAMA mission statement and philosophy

Must be willing to complete a minimum of 20 clock hours of training annually.

Must be willing to participate in monthly staff meetings as well center wide activities that take place outside of the normal hours of operation.

Schedule: Hours may vary by day. Part- time and Full-time positions are needed.

Pay: Hourly wage will be determined by education, and experience in the field.

Assistant Teacher- Toddler Room

Job Description and Responsibilities:

This position is created to assist the lead teacher of the toddler room in engaging with, teaching and supervising children ages 12 months up to three years. Responsibilities include, assisting the lead teacher with executing curriculum, addressing and assisting each child with their everyday as well as special needs. Assist with creating positive relationships with each child and engage with assisting them with general self- help skills such as potty training, getting dressed, brushing their teeth, drinking from a cup, and using utensils to eat. Communicating with parents and caregivers on a regular basis. Creating a safe, educational, nurturing and calm environment. Generate positive relationships with families, co-workers, licensing officials, and community partners.

Qualifications:

Must have a deep love for children and an astounding desire to make a difference in children's lives every day.

Must obtain a calm soft demeanor in the loud and sometimes chaotic environment of a toddler room

Must be willing to work, teach, and educate according to YAMA standards as well as NAEYC and Great Start standards.

Must encompass the YAMA mission statement and philosophy

Must be willing to complete a minimum of 20 clock hours of training annually.

Must be willing to participate in monthly staff meetings as well center wide activities that take place outside of the normal hours of operation.

Schedule: Hours may vary by day. Part- time and Full-time positions are needed.

Pay: Hourly wage will be determined by education, and experience in the field.

Assistant Teacher- Preschool Room

Job Description and Responsibilities:

This position is created to assist the lead teacher of the Preschool room in engaging with, teaching and supervising preschool children. Responsibilities include assisting the lead teacher with executing curriculum, addressing and assisting each child with their everyday as well as special needs. Communicating with parents and caregivers on a regular basis. Creating a safe, nurturing and educational environment. Generate positive relationships with families, co-workers, licensing officials, and community partners.

Qualifications:

Must have a deep love for children and a desire to make a difference in children's lives every day.

Must have superb endurance to withstand a high energy classroom

Must be willing to work, teach, and educate according to YAMA standards as well as NAEYC and Great Start standards.

Must encompass the YAMA mission statement and philosophy

Must be willing to complete a minimum of 20 clock hours of training annually.

Must be willing to participate in monthly staff meetings as well center wide activities that take place outside of the normal hours of operation.

Schedule: Hours may vary by day. Part- time and Full-time positions are needed.

Pay: Hourly wage will be determined by education, and experience in the field.